“ As our hearts feel heavy of Isabel's passing, they will lighten as we reminisce of all the great memories, the smiles, the laughter and fun things we did while we were together with our friends and families. As I think of Isabel, I think of Jacque. Our parents were great friends, and now they are all together. Cherish yesterday. Dream tomorrow. And Live Today. With Sympathy and Friendship

“ Iam the PSW from the Red Cross that took care of your mother. My name is Diane. Your mother was looking foward to her operation so she could be able to breath normal.when I saw her son come out of her room at Kingsville Court, I thought I should wait until the next day until she is felling better. But the news came the next day that she had passed away. I will never forgive myself for not seeing her that day. She was a sweetheart and so easy to talk to, I miss her already.

“ Mary Beth and I were stunned when we heard that Aunt Isabel had passed away so quickly. Our paths did not cross very often over the years as we seemed to live in parts of Ontario away from most of our Russell family roots. I remember Isabel mostly as a small child living in South Windsor not too far from Gramma and Grampa Russell's house and eventually where Isabel and Jack spent many years in his repair shop and garage on Huron Line. We too visited the antique barn and have several pieces of furniture that we treasure. We are so sorry for your loss and will be thinking about Isabel's life tomorrow. Unfortunately we are still in Florida and will not be back to attend her funeral. Tom and Mary Beth Russell.

“ My husband and I have fond memories of spending many Saturday mornings amid the treasures at Talbot Trail Antiques. We are often reminded of Isabel and Jack when we look at some of the furnishings in our home – the old English pump organ, our marble-topped sideboard, a victorian table, the leaded glass china cabinet, a victorian chair, an oak wardrobe, ... - which we “discovered” at their shop situated in the barn behind the house. As I write this, I can hear Isabel’s distinctive laugh and it makes me smile. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her loved ones. Ann & Bill Dresser and family.

“ Murray & Helen & family

We are so very sorry to hear of the loss of Isabell.
She spoke so much of the family and of her trailer. Enjoyed playing bingo with her.
Such a kind, good hearted woman.
She will be missed.
Know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers.
R.I.P. Isabell.

“ We lost a very dear neighbor of ours. My Friday afternoons will never be the same without going next door to watch the story (General Hospital), having a cup of tea and playing some scrabble or yahtzee. She was a wonderful lady and will be very missed. She always said that she was lucky to have really good neighbors on both sides, but I think we were the lucky ones to have her in our lives. My deepest sympathies to her family at this time. May you rest in peace Mrs. McLeod <3 <3 <3

“ Dear Heather,

I did not know your Grandma, but it is evident that she must have been an incredibly loving and faithful woman, because her granddaughter (you my dear friend) are very much like that. I am sure she was proud of you in life and shall be your angel in the hereafter. Keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. Blessings, my friend.

“ It is with great shock and sorrow that we learned of Isabel's passing - she was so full of life. Her and I shared birthdays for many many years (1 day apart) - mine April 9th (in just two days) and her's April 8th - tomorrow - I sent her a card just the other day, because she was always the one to send me a card or us one for Christmas and I felt I had to be on top this year - she was a wonderful, thoughtful person and we will certainly miss her cheerful voice on the phone - she always said "I'll make this quick because you are paying long distance charges". Living out in Alberta, we certainly did not get to see a lot of my family and I think of my brother Jack often and miss him - but I certainly did not think we would be saying goodbye to Isabel so soon - all the thoughts and prayers go out to Murray and Anne and their families.
